

Function:	VN-127 - Manufacturing, Assembly, Integration and Testing Manager
Project/Department:	MAIT

1. Needs

Active Space Technologies is looking for a Manager for all aspects of Mechanical, Electronics and Environmental Labs necessary to conduct and document design experiments, prototype constructions, and design qualification testing. Support Engineering staff to ensure on time release of projects.

2. Duties & Responsibilities

- Planning and Management of mechanical, electrical and environmental areas, clean room and general operations;
- Supporting CEO/Area Managers and responsible;
- Support stock and storage responsible;
- Support to Project Manager for reviewing designs, documentations and drawings for feasibility, manufacturing processes and design strategies for manufacturing during projects;
- Support Logistics & Stock, and Quality process;
- Support Quality department with maintenance plan for the manufacturing and measure equipment's;
- Support to projects (eg, cleaning, assembling, packing, delivery notes);

3. Minimal Requirements:

3.1 Academic Qualification

- Degree in mechanical engineer;

3.2 Key Technical Knowledge and Practical Experience

- Good mechanical aptitude, proficient in sheet metal fabrication, welding, diagnosing electro-mechanical hardware, and knowledge of press brake principals;
- Must be able to think creatively, multi-task and make decisions quickly to adapt to test findings, engineering needs, and business objectives;
- Strong leadership qualities a must, to communicate company vision through verbal, written, and listening skills to insure company goals are attained;
- Excellent problem solving and time management skills;
- Good interpersonal and organizational skills able to motivate people;
- Ability to manage time and work to strict deadlines;

3.3 Languages

- Fluency in English;

4. Maximum Compensation

21.000€ - 22.380€ per annum

Please apply for the e-mail jobs@activespacetech.com with reference to VN-127 in the subject of the message.